FMLA DESCRIPTION OF A QUALIFYING EXIGENCY

Eligible employees may take FMLA leave while the employee's spouse, son, daughter or parent (i.e. the "covered military member") is on active duty or call to active duty status as defined in 29 C.F.R. 825.126(b)(2) for one or more of the following qualifying exigencies:

1. Short-Notice Deployment

Any issue that arises from the fact that a covered military member is notified of an impending call or order to active duty in support of a contingency operation seven or less calendar days prior to the date of deployment.

2. Military Events and Related Activities

Leave to attend any official ceremony, program or event sponsored by the military that is related to active duty or call to active duty or call to active duty status of a covered military member; or leave to attend family support or assistance programs and informal briefings sponsored or promoted by the military, military service organizations, or the American Red Cross that are related to the active duty or call to active duty status of a covered military member.

3. Childcare and School Activities

When necessary due to circumstances arising from the active duty or call to active duty status of a covered military member - leave to arrange for alternative childcare; to enroll in or transfer the military service member's child to a new school or daycare facility; or to attend meetings with staff at a school or daycare facility concerning the covered service member's child.

4. Financial and Legal Arrangements

To make or update financial or legal arrangements to address the covered military member's absence, such as preparing and executing powers of attorney, transferring bank account signature authority, or preparing a living will or trust.

5. Counseling

To attend counseling provided by someone other than a health care provider for oneself, for the covered military member. Or for the child of the covered military service member provided that the need for counseling arises from the active duty or call to active duty status of a covered military member.

6. Rest and Recuperation

To spend time with a covered military member who is on short-term, temporary, rest and recuperation leave during the period of deployment.

7. Post-Deployment Activities

To attend any official ceremony or program sponsored by the military for a period of 90 days following the termination of the covered military member's active duty status (i.e. arrival ceremonies or reintegration events); or to address issues that arise from the death of a covered military member while on active duty status.

8. Additional Activities

Other events that arise out of the covered military member's active duty or call to active duty status provided the employer and employee agree that such leave shall qualify as an exigency, and agree to both the timing and duration of such leave.
